

TEACHING RESOURCES

www.jpf.org.au/resources

Teaching resources by The Japan Foundation, Sydney

Interactive Whiteboard Resources

コンビニすろく

www.jpf.org.au/iwb/index.html

This is an Interactive Whiteboard resource which contains activities for learning and practicing vocabulary and expressions related to convenience stores in Japan, through the game of Sugoroku. These resources, including a teachers' manual, are available for free from the Japan Foundation, Sydney website.

Japan Art Directory in Australia

jad.jpf-sydney.org

The Japan Art Directory in Australia (JAD) is a reference site that introduces Japanese artists and non-Japanese artists practising traditional and contemporary Japanese art forms, experts in the area of Japanese art and arts organisations representing Japanese arts based in Australia. Our aim is to showcase their artworks, practises and activities to further their recognition and to promote excellence in Japanese art and culture.

JPF, Sydney classroom resources

www.jpf.org.au/resources/index.html

Here you can find numerous resources for your classroom including activities, Japanese plays and skits, flashcards and many other classroom ideas and resources.

Happy Family Plan

www.happyfamilyplan.com/index.html

The Happy Family Plan Language Resource Kit is a first in the market that is known of to enable easy learning through film in four easy steps: Watch. Listen. Practise. Speak. It is an effective learning tool for introducing Japanese language and culture to students, teachers, film lovers and the general public, presented in an engaging, entertaining and educational way.

Art Speaks Japanese

www.artalive.jpf-sydney.net/kit.html

Art Speaks Japanese is a resource kit that introduces 16 significant artworks from the Art Gallery of NSW Japanese collection, and draws on the expertise in Japanese language of the Japan Foundation, Sydney, and in arts education of the Art Gallery of New South Wales.

Japan Foundation Library

www.jpf.org.au/library/index.html

Located next to the Japan Foundation, Sydney, our library offers an extensive range of books, audio-visual items and electronic resources in both Japanese and English. Japanese language education resources can be borrowed, including teaching resources and textbooks. The library is a public-lending library for anyone interested in Japan and Japanese culture. Materials can be sent to other locations around Australia on request.

Resource websites by The Japan Foundation

Nihongo e な

www.nihongo-e-na.com

This is a portal site for various kinds of websites and online tools useful for learners and teachers of Japanese. It also supports learners and teachers from all over the world who want to make use of the internet in order to learn and enjoy the Japanese language.

Erin's Challenge! I can speak Japanese

www.erin.ne.jp/en

This is the site for the DVD resource series '(Erin's Challenge! I Can speak Japanese)'. Students learn language in an authentic cultural context with video skits, games and quizzes.

Japanese in Anime & Manga

www.anime-manga.jp

This e-learning site offers a fun way to learn Japanese expressions through anime & manga.

